ORDER

This matter is before the court on the defendant's unopposed motion to continue trial [89] as defense counsel has a medical condition that needs attention. The defendant has complied with NECrimR 12.1(a). The court finds good cause being shown and the trial will be continued.

IT IS ORDERED that the motion to continue trial is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial now set for September 29, 2015 is continued to November 9, 2015.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and November 9, 2015, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel for the defendant the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B)(iv).

DATED September 22, 2015.

United States Magistrate Judge
